Up Next: Pedals, Pipes and Pizza

Saturday, February 7th at 10:00 am
South Park United Methodist Church,
140 Stonemill Rd. Dayton, Ohio

Priscilla Acuff and South Park UMC will host the Dayton Chapter's 2015 Pedals, Pipes and Pizza. Interested in learning about the organ? Grades 1 - 12 students with piano skills are invited to attend Pedals, Pipes, and Pizza, Saturday, February 7th from 10:00 am to 12:00 noon at South Park

United Methodist Church (on the corner of Brown and Stonemill Rds). Adults are welcome to watch. Cost is $5 and includes pizza.

Members who teach piano should encourage their students to come to this popular event. We rotate kids through classes, give them a tour of the pipe chambers and most important, give them time to play the organ!

Please help promote the PPP in any way you can. The PPP is an outstanding way to promote youth interest in the organ, and encourage youngsters to consider learning to play the organ and possibly serve as church organist in their future.

Contact Priscilla Acuff at 296-1430 or Pjacuff711@sbcglobal.net to register by Jan. 29th. This event is presented by the Dayton Chapter American Guild of Organists. An electronic Flyer can be found on our chapter website at <http://agodayton.org/index.php?news&nid=71>

Cheri Warner is a piano teacher who tries to promote organ study to her students. She'd like to borrow "The Church Musician" by Glover/Gunthar. Alfred. Level 5 for a month. If you have it, you can contact her through the chapter facebook page.

The AGO Music Sale and Choral Reading Was Great Fun!

Thanks to Jim Owen and Zion Lutheran Church for hosting our 2015 Music Sale and Choral Reading! And thanks to all of those who gave up the Buckeyes big game to come. We had over twenty folks there. The chapter took in fifty one dollars from the sale which at our bargain prices means over fifty books of music found a new home.

Jim Owen, Terry Donat, Jeanne Schierloh, Kathy Maresca, and Priscilla Acuff all brought music to play on Zion's 25 stop, 2 manual Casavant organ or piano. Jim also had one of his church members accompany a number on flute. It was a great night of music. A few photos are below.

Shopping in Zion's Community Room

Dean Tom Aldridge tries to sell Sam Bennett on some gently used Bach

Jim accompanies a young Zion Church flautist....

And tells about the church and organ

Jim also played choral selections and hymns.

Jeanne Preferred Zion's piano

Terry Donat led by example... what a good voice!

Priscilla guided us through a short Little piece – "Please turn to page 287"

Finally, Jim rounded out the evening with a wonderful, if unconventional, pedal cadenza!!
