DEAN'S MESSAGE

Dr. David Crean

Hopefully everyone is well rested after summer and ready for another year of music making. We have a full season of events for your edification and enjoyment.

Please be sure to attend and bring along others you know who are interested in all things organ. A complete listing of events and details for our September 18 carry in dinner and program are found in the next pages of this edition.

Is your membership information up to date? Not sure? Contact Ellen Bagley, our Membership Chair, to be sure you get all the benefits of being an AGO member. You can also renew your membership via the national website with their ONCARD system here.

FIRST CHAPTER EVENT

Host: Danielle Guilbault

September 18, 4:00-6:30pm

Christ UMC, Kettering

3440 Shroyer Road

The ins and outs of i-pads for performance

Have you seen musicians using simply and i-pad or other small device to read the score while playing or conducting? Danielle Guilbault will guide us through her experiences in actively using these devices and the pros and cons about computers vs. paper scores. Bring a dish to share. Drinks and dinnerware provided.

BACH SOCIETY NEWS

New Music Director

Congratulations to Dr. David Crean, the newly appointed music director of The Bach Society of Dayton. Thank you to Rev. John Neely for his many years in the position.
